WELCOME to ELFIT Crossfit® Championship

We would like to welcome you to the 8th and most exciting season of ELFIT. Year after year ELFIT strives to bring the Fitness/CrossFit community together to celebrate health, good habits and sport; all while enjoying being in one of the most historically rich and cultural country like Egypt.

We hope you've started preparing for our next season! Since we have been announced as a CrossFit® Games Sanctioned event we have been working tirelessly to bring you an event to exceed all your expectations!

ELFIT OVERVIEW

Evolving from a local fitness competition, among thousands of competitions that happen all over the world, as of 2019 ELFIT was officially announced as one of CrossFit® sanctioned events, where the 1st place Female, Male & Mixed Team (MM+FF) will compete alongside the fittest in the world at the 2020 CrossFit® Games in Madison, Wisconsin.

ELFIT was launched in February 2013, with more than 5000 athletes over the years from more than 45 countries. ELFIT brings together a huge community of athletes from games level athletes to rookies & spectators from countries all over the world all joined in one of a kind experience, to compete, gather and celebrate well-being and fitness together.

GENERAL RULES:

- Any athlete meeting ELFIT's age and eligibility requirements may register to compete in the online qualifiers. Any athlete wishing to participate in the online qualifiers must complete the registration process in time to be eligible to compete in the first online qualifier workouts of the season.
- ELFIT reserves the exclusive right to allow or deny the participation of any athlete. ELFIT also reserves the exclusive right to validate or invalidate any athlete's scores submitted for the purpose of qualifying for ELFIT Finals. ELFIT will make such participation and scoring decisions to preserve the integrity of the competition.
- ELFIT reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to invite past winners, guest athletes, teams, or others to participate in any stage of the competition. This decision may be made to preserve the traditions and spirit of ELFIT or for any other reason at the sole discretion of ELFIT
- To participate in any stage of ELFIT competition, all athletes (individuals/team) must agree and abide to all the rules and policies, including, without limitation, the assumption of risk, and publicity release, all of which are incorporated by reference, and to the decisions of ELFIT, which are final and binding in all respects.
- All athletes are required to have completed and abide by the appropriate waivers and documentation as outlined by ELFIT, paid and validly registered for entry, completed an online and/or on-site check-in process, and must be wearing official event identification and/or credentials where specified.
- Athletes will have to comply with the CrossFit Games rules book. All athletes are eligible for random drug testing.

- ELFIT team will evaluate your video if your score is potentially in the top of the leaderboard in each Workout. ELFIT team reserves the right to correct the scores if needed.
- Videos must be uploaded on a public platform (i.e. Youtube, Vimeo, or Google drive), athletes will have to provide the link to the video while submitting their score.
- It is the sole responsibility of the athlete/team to ensure the timely and successful submission of their workout each week. Submissions that are incomplete or not verified will not be accepted.
- Any athlete/team that feels that their video submission may be delayed due to issues with the uploading should send an email to support@elfiteg.com notifying ELFIT team of these difficulties. ELFIT team must receive this email notification PRIOR to the score submission deadline announced. Once the deadline closes athletes will not be able to adjust or resubmit any score for that event.
- While scores are being validated through your facility owner/manager ELFIT judging team holds the right to review any or all videos submitted, as part of this video review process, the athletes posted score may be accepted, modified, or invalidated without warning, and after the close of the competition.
- Athletes/teams may complete the workouts for the online qualifier as many times as they desire, and resubmit new scores until each workout submission deadline
- Athletes/teams submitting videos are advised to have someone strictly watching their movement to ensure each repetition meets standards, and that the camera captures the movement clearly. Penalties may be assessed due to an athlete not meeting the movement standard or due to improper camera angles that do not permit the judge to determine if the standard is being met.
- The athlete is responsible for making sure they perform the workout as prescribed, including performing all the required movements to the described standard, counting and completing all of the required reps, using the required equipment and loads, meeting the required time and meeting all submission requirements.

Before starting each workout, the athlete must do the following:

- Athlete must state their name, judge name and affiliate/facility.
- All equipment used must be clearly displayed and measured (Weights, box, wall-ball target height, etc.)

DURING EACH WORKOUT, make sure that:

- Video must be taken from an angle that shows full profile of the athlete to ensure that full motion standards are met.
- Videos CAN NOT BE EDITED in any way. The video needs to be ongoing. Cutting the video will result in immediate disqualification.
- Both the athlete and the judge need to be in the video at all times during the workout.
- The timer must always be in clear sight throughout the video. (a tablet can be used).
- The equipment need to be in the video at all times.
- The judge must not touch or move the equipment, except for activating the rowers display which is allowed.
- The qualification process is a competition environment. Have a judge in your video ready and able to give and show no-reps. Additional no-reps given at video reviewal will result in penalties and/or rejection of the video.

VIDEO QUICK TIPS:

- Videos CAN NOT BE EDITED in any way. The video needs to be ongoing. Cutting the video will result in immediate disqualification.
- YouTube allows uploads longer than 15 minutes, Click HERE to find more information.
- Upload videos with plenty of time to spare, uploading large video files can take a long time.
- If you're using a phone, set it to airplane mode to avoid unwanted interruptions during filming.
- Ensure your filming device has enough battery life to film the entire WOD, and enough memory.

SCORING PENALTIES

- Prior to submitting a video, athletes should review the video to ensure their reps meet the required standards, the camera angle permits the judge to determine if the movement standards are being met or not and determine if there are any technical problems with the video itself.
- Videos that show a discrepancy between the score submitted and the score displayed in the video will undergo the following penalties:
 - If it's a 'For Time' workout: Every no rep that is counted will add three seconds to the score.
 - If it's an 'AMRAP' workout: Every no rep that is counted will be deducted from the score.

ONLINE QUALIFIERS APPEALS

For all inquiries/appeals during ELFIT online qualifier, the following process will be used:

- The competing athlete immediately notifies ELFIT staff at support@elfiteg.com about the result in question by relating their name and reason for protest. Please note, inquiries will be answered in the order they are received. Scoring protests/appeals made by anonymous individuals in regard to another athlete's performance will not be accepted.
- ELFIT staff and athlete will communicate to fact find and define the issue in protest.
- Meeting submission requirements and deadlines is the responsibility of the athlete.

FINALS ON-SITE RULES:

- Athletes log-in/check-in: All athletes/teams must complete an on-site check-in process on Wednesday April 8th, 2020 and is mandatory. Any athlete or team not checked-in on that day is not guaranteed event access and can be disqualified from competition.
- Athletes will need to bring a printout of their confirmation e-mail as well as a proof of age, and residency is required (can be in the form of a passport, birth certificate, driving license or National Egyptian ID for Egyptians)
- All athletes will receive their competition ID, participation kit in addition to sponsors' giveaways upon availability.
- Schedule of events: the schedule and workouts will be released before the competition begins. The date, location, and travel information for ELFIT will be distributed on ELFIT website and/or through e-mail to each competing athlete.
- It is the responsibility of each competing athlete and team to meet all required travel and scheduling commitments. This includes, but is not limited to, all event briefings, competition schedules and non-competition appearances. Athletes are required to designate a point of communication with ELFIT at the athlete registration and maintain this through the entire duration of the event.
- Athletes/teams may be granted a late check-in the Thursday morning of the event, prior to the start of the athlete briefings and the first event, for special circumstances. ELFIT reserves the right to deny special requests. Athletes/teams in need of this must contact ELFIT staff at least 1 week before the check-in date to request a late check-in.

- All competing members of a team are required to complete check-in individually. Another athlete/person/team member may not complete check-in for any other individual. Unless it was pre approved by ELFIT HQ team
- ELFIT makes no guarantee that athlete registration and check-in access will be available after the day prior to competition. Once the first workout has begun, any Athletes or Teams who have not checked in will be disqualified from competition.
- Athletes are handed identification cards/bracelets that should be kept with them at all times, and should be shown upon request, if at any time the athlete didn't show the identification card or has lost it, they will be subjected to the risk of disqualification.
- Each athlete/team will be given a coach bracelet during their check in which allows one coach per athlete/team in the warm-up area
- The coach access bracelet is only used to allow the coach to enter the warm up area, HOWEVER coaches still must purchase an event ticket to enter the event before being able to use the coach access bracelet.
- At all times, the coach must present the required event pass and/or credentials to enter this area. Coaches are not allowed to enter the competition area or the athletes' area at any time.
- If a team member is injured, the team may continue competing until such time that they are unable to complete the workout as prescribed. At this point, the team MIGHT not advance in the competition.
- Personal therapy providers, photographer/videographers or athlete entourage are considered general admission spectators and will not be allowed access to competition arenas, warm-up areas or restricted athlete-only areas.
- Athlete rehabilitative medical staff (soft tissue and body care providers) will be provided by ELFIT to all athletes in a designated restricted access area. Any athletes requesting the use of their own personal therapy providers (massage, PT, chiropractic, etc.) must do so in designated locations within general admission access area.

ATHLETES BRIEFING:

- The defined method in which the athlete shall meet the range of motion standard will be announced by ELFIT. Delivery can be in the form of online media, written document, or athlete briefing either with or without demonstration. Regardless of delivery method, the athlete is required to meet or exceed the event's movement standard's requirements during all competition. (Example: If a squat snatch is prescribed as the event's movement standard, a power snatch will not meet the standard, unless otherwise stated).
- Delivery of the event's movement standard and required range of motion to all participating athletes & teams will occur during an athlete briefing just prior the event. This briefing will typically be delivered by the technical director or any of the head judges, with or without visual demonstration.
- The briefing can be on the same day of the event at the event location or can be in a different location/day.
- There will be an opportunity for athletes to have questions answered at the briefing. Athletes' attendance is mandatory for the daily briefing. The time and location of such briefings will be communicated to athletes.
- ELFIT reserves the right to make changes to the date, time and location of athlete briefings based on changes to the event schedule. Any such changes will be properly communicated with all athletes in advance. Athletes and teams who are absent from these briefings may be subject to the loss of protest rights during the competition and may also be disqualified from further competition.

- Demonstration of the event's movement standard applying the acceptable range of motion, or demonstration of unacceptable range of motion is not required and will be used as needed.

FINALS SCORING SYSTEM & GENERAL RULES:

Finals' detailed scoring system for the all categories will be announced before the event during the briefing

- Athletes and teams will complete multiple workouts over three days. Details will be released prior to the start of any workout and will be consistent for all eligible athletes at the time of release. The athlete and team that stands on top of the leaderboard in their competitive category at the end of the competition will earn 1st place in that division at ELFIT.
- On-site judges will validate scores for each workout an athlete performs.
- At each round athletes/teams will be ranked on their performance in each workout. Based on their relative rank, they will be assigned points. Their total points will be ranked on the overall ranking list. The top athletes/teams on the overall ranking list will advance or win the competition.
- The scoring system as well as the tie breaker rule in case of any score ties will be announced in the briefing day
- Some workouts may have a minimum amount of time, repetitions, weight or rounds required in order to advance. Any such minimums will be announced as part of the workout format. Failure to reach a minimum may result in the athlete or team not advancing to the next workout, regardless of overall rank.
- If an athlete does not advance to the next workout for any reason (DNF, injury, disqualification, etc.), they will be ranked below all competitors who started that workout.

JUDGING & APPEALS:

- Judges are instructed not to touch competition equipment or move equipment during a workout unless the equipment will interfere with another athlete's performance or if there is a legitimate safety concern.
- Judges calls made during the workout are final and are not negotiable or subject to change or modification.
- Event judges & on-site directors have the authority to stop or suspend an athlete at any point in competition if he or she feels that the athlete is at risk of serious injury to himself/herself or others.
- Physical limitations in range of motion from prior physical defects or temporary or permanent injuries that are obvious and clearly definable by demonstration and are brought to the attention of a judge or ELFIT prior to the beginning of the competition may be granted an exception at the sole discretion of ELFIT' sole discretion. These cases are very rare and will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Appeals:

- On-site appeals, event protests, scoring discrepancies or ruling questions will be immediately filed with the event' head judge on the floor during the event in question. If the event's head judge is unavailable, any head judge or on-site director can begin the protest process.
- Signing your individual or team score sheet indicates you are agreeing to your score and time for the event. Appeals made after a score sheet is signed will be deemed invalid and rejected.
- Only affected athletes, members of the team, or coaches of the affected team may appeal a result. Non-related parties may not appeal on behalf of another

ELFIT CROSSIFT® CHAMPIONSHIP 2020 RULES BOOK

- Athletes may not protest discrepancies related to the judging, scoring, or performance of another athlete or team.
- Athletes may not appeal their own performance based on the judging, scoring, or performance of another athlete or team.
- Videos, photos, cell phone media, or any other media will not constitute grounds for changing or modifying a decision, score, or entry made by an event judge. The head judge, the event director, or their designee may ask for any related media, but its availability may or may not guarantee use or admissibility in the overall decision process.
- For all athletes' event's protests, appeals, scoring discrepancies, or ruling questions, the following process will be used:
 - The competing athlete OR the athlete's coach only - one person to file the protest - (no other athletes or persons may be involved) files the protest to the event's head judge of the competition event in question by relating their name, athlete number, and reason for protest.
 - The judges' team leader, athlete, and that athlete's event's judge/judges during the workout in question will all communicate to fact find and define the issue in protest.
 - All information will then be presented to the competition's head judge and/or on-site director or their designee for a final ruling.
 - The on-site director has final authority on all athletes' event's protest rulings and may designate this authority to the head judge in most cases.
- Nothing in these rules including event protests, scoring discrepancies, event movement standards, and range of motion judging applications should be read as a limitation on ELFIT's right to run or operate any ELFIT's supported, sanctioned, or sponsored event as it sees fit in its sole and absolute discretion and the event's director and ELFIT's say is final. This includes the right to remove or disqualify any athlete at ELFIT's sole and absolute discretion.

Attire:

- Proper attire is required at all events.
- No attire shall interfere with event judging and the ability to see the event's movements' standards or range of motion.
- Subject to ELFIT prior approval, joint sleeves, gloves, belts, and common fitness wear may be allowed during competition. However, no grip assistance or weight support may be derived from any device worn. In general, gear is allowed that improves safety and/or comfort but does not confer advantage.
- Once an athlete enters the competition surface, they may not receive any outside material assistance (water bottle, tape, chalk, jumping rope etc.) from spectators or coaches.

PRIZES:

- ELFIT 2020 overall prizes will be more than 30,000 USD
- All winners will receive a cheque with the prize amount after the event
- All Checks will be due after 8-12 weeks of the event
- Detailed prizes will be announced soon
- All prizes are subject to applicable taxes, withholding, and prize winner's compliance with, and agreement to the ELFIT prize affidavit.
