

ELFIT CrossFit® Championship 2022

Rules Book

Welcome to ELFIT CrossFit® Championship

We would like to welcome you to the 10th edition of ELFIT. This is a very special year as we celebrate 10 years since ELFIT started back in February 2013.

We're honored to be not only one of the biggest events in the sport worldwide, but also one of the oldest Fitness competitions that is still up and running.

Every year ELFIT brings together a huge community of athletes from all fitness levels and from countries all over the world to compete, gather and celebrate well-being and fitness together.

This year the event will be held from 10-12 November 2022 at the New Capital Sports City world class facility.

We promise to keep delivering a one-of-a-kind event and as strive to bring the Fitness/CrossFit® community together to celebrate health, good habits and sport; all while enjoying being in one of the most historically rich and cultural country like Egypt.

*Adam Elzoghby
Co-Founder & Event Director*

GENERAL RULES:

- To participate in any stage of ELFIT competition, all athletes (individuals/team) must agree and abide to all the rules and policies, including, without limitation, the assumption of risk, and publicity release, all of which are incorporated by reference, and to the decisions of ELFIT, which are final and binding in all respects.
- All athletes are required to have completed and abide by the appropriate waivers and documentation as outlined by ELFIT, paid and validly registered for entry, completed an online and/or on-site check-in process, and must be wearing official event identification and/or credentials where specified.
- Athletes will have to comply with the CrossFit® Games rules book. All athletes are eligible for random drug testing.
- ELFIT prohibits athletes from using any illegal performance enhancing substances. If it is found that an athlete is under the influence or use of such substances, ELFIT reserves the right to disqualify the athlete from the competition and/or revoke any prizes earned while under the influence or during the use of such substances.
- This Guide is not intended as a limitation on ELFIT staff rights to operate ELFIT in any manner it sees fit. ELFIT, reserves the right to terminate any athlete, coach, staff, volunteer, judge, visitor, guest, supporter, teammate and/or spectator at any time, with no further obligation or duty to such individual.
- ELFIT has, and may, delegate to an On-site Director, the absolute authority on any final ruling including, without limitation, disqualification of an athlete, removal of spectator(s), or dismissal of any attendee.
- It is the sole responsibility of the winners and/or compensated athletes to present valid identification when requested.
- All prizes are subject to applicable taxes and withholding, and prize winner's compliance with, and agreement to, The ELFIT prize affidavit.

- ELFIT team will evaluate your video if your score is potentially in the top of the leaderboard in each Workout. ELFIT team reserves the right to correct the scores if needed.
- Videos must be uploaded on a public platform (i.e., YouTube, Vimeo, or Google Drive ...etc.), athletes will have to provide the link to the video while submitting their score.
- It is the sole responsibility of the athlete/team to ensure the timely and successful submission of their workout each week. Submissions that are incomplete or not verified will not be accepted, including but not limited to: video being available and public, wrong video submitted video, wrong motions, wrong weights, ...etc.)
- Any athlete/team that feels that their video submission may be delayed due to issues with the uploading should send an email to support@elfiteg.com notifying ELFIT team of these difficulties. ELFIT team must receive this email notification PRIOR to the score submission deadline announced. Once the deadline closes athletes will not be able to adjust or resubmit any score for that event.
- While scores are being validated through your facility owner/manager ELFIT judging team holds the right to review any or all videos submitted, as part of this video review process, the athletes posted score may be accepted, modified, or invalidated without warning, and after the close of the competition.
- Athletes/teams may complete the workouts for the online qualifier as many times as they desire and resubmit new scores until each workout submission deadline.
- Athletes/teams submitting videos are advised to have someone strictly watching their movement to ensure each repetition meets standards, and that the camera captures the movement clearly. Penalties may be assessed due to an athlete not meeting the movement standard or due to improper camera angles that do not permit the judge to determine if the standard is being met.
- The athlete is responsible for making sure they perform the workout as prescribed, including performing all the required movements to the described standard, counting, and completing all the required reps, using the required equipment and loads, meeting the required time and meeting all submission requirements.
- While the ownership of the online qualifier's videos remains the athletes' right, ELFIT reserve the rights to use all the videos submitted through Competition Corner without limitation. For example, and not limited to: qualifying the athletes to the event, Marketing use on all platforms, technical briefs, trainings, ..etc.

Before starting each workout, the athlete must do the following:

- Athlete must state their name, division, workout name, judge name and affiliate/facility.
- All equipment used must be clearly displayed and measured (Weights, box, wall-ball target height, etc.)

DURING EACH WORKOUT, make sure that:

- Personal therapy providers, photographer/videographers or athlete entourage are considered general admission spectators and will not be allowed access to competition arenas, warm-up areas or restricted athlete-only areas.
- Athlete rehabilitative medical staff (soft tissue and body care providers) will be provided by ELFIT to all athletes in a designated restricted access area. Any athletes requesting the use of their own personal therapy providers (massage, PT, chiropractic, etc.) must do so in designated locations within general admission access area.

Competition Schedule:

- The schedule and workouts will be released before the competition begins. The date, location, and travel information for ELFIT will be distributed on ELFIT website and/or through e-mail to each competing athlete.
- It is the responsibility of each competing athlete and team to meet all required travel and scheduling commitments. This includes, but is not limited to, all event briefings, competition schedules and non- competition appearances. Athletes are required to designate a point of communication with ELFIT at the athlete registration and maintain this through the entire duration of the event.

ATHLETES BRIEFING:

- The defined method in which the athlete shall meet the range of motion standard will be announced by ELFIT. Delivery can be in the form of online media, written document, or athlete briefing either with or without demonstration. Regardless of delivery method, the athlete is required to meet or exceed the event's movement standard's requirements during all competition. (Example: If a squat snatch is prescribed as the event's movement standard, a power snatch will not meet the standard, unless otherwise stated).
- Delivery of the event's movement standard and required range of motion to all participating athletes & teams will occur during an athlete briefing just prior the event. This briefing will typically be delivered by the technical director or any of the head judges, with or without visual demonstration.
- The briefing can be on the same day of the event at the event location or can be in a different location/day.
- There will be an opportunity for athletes to have questions answered at the briefing. Athletes' attendance is mandatory for the daily briefing. The time and location of such briefings will be communicated to athletes.
- ELFIT reserves the right to make changes to the date, time and location of athlete briefings based on changes to the event schedule. Any such changes will be properly communicated with all athletes in advance. Athletes and teams who are absent from these briefings may be subject to the loss of protest rights during the competition and may also be disqualified from further competition

- Demonstration of the event's movement standard applying the acceptable range of motion, or demonstration of unacceptable range of motion is not required and will be used as needed.

FINALS SCORING SYSTEM & GENERAL RULES:

Championship detailed scoring system for all categories will be announced before the event during the briefing

- Athletes and teams will complete multiple workouts over three days. Details will be released prior to the start of any workout and will be consistent for all eligible athletes at the time of release. The athlete and team that stands on top of the leaderboard in their competitive category at the end of the competition will earn 1st place in that division at ELFIT Championship 2022.
- On-site judges will validate scores for each workout an athlete performs.
- At each round athletes/teams will be ranked on their performance in each workout. Based on their relative rank, they will be assigned points. Their total points will be ranked on the overall ranking list. The top athletes/teams on the overall ranking list will advance or win the competition.
- The scoring system as well as the tie breaker rule in case of any score ties will be announced in the briefing day.
- Some workouts may have a minimum amount of time, repetitions, weight or rounds required in order to advance. Any such minimums will be announced as part of the workout format. Failure to reach a minimum may result in the athlete or team not advancing to the next workout, regardless of overall rank.
- If an athlete does not advance to the next workout for any reason (DNF, injury, disqualification, etc.), they will be ranked below all competitors who started that workout.

JUDGING & APPEALS:

- Judges are instructed not to touch competition equipment or move equipment during a workout unless the equipment will interfere with another athlete's performance or if there is a legitimate safety concern.
- Judges' calls made during the workout are final and are not negotiable or subject to change or modification.
- Event judges & on-site directors have the authority to stop or suspend an athlete at any point in competition if he or she feels that the athlete is at risk of serious injury to himself/herself or others.
- Physical limitations in range of motion from prior physical defects or temporary or permanent injuries that are obvious and clearly definable by demonstration and are brought to the attention of a Head judge or ELFIT prior to the beginning of the competition may be granted an exception at the sole discretion of ELFIT' sole discretion. These cases are very rare and will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Appeals:

- On-site appeals process and regulations will be shared with all qualified athletes before the event.

Attire:

- Proper attire is required at all events.
- No attire shall interfere with event judging and the ability to see the event's movements' standards or range of motion.
- Subject to ELFIT prior approval, joint sleeves, gloves, belts, and common fitness wear may be allowed during competition. However, no grip assistance or weight support may be derived from any device worn. In general, gear is allowed that improves safety and/or comfort but does not confer advantage.
- Once an athlete enters the competition surface, they may not receive any outside material assistance (water bottle, tape, chalk, jumping rope etc.) from spectators or coaches.

PRIZES:

- ELFIT 2022 overall prizes will be announced 1-2 weeks before the final event
- Prizes will be in Egyptian Pounds
- All prizes are subject to applicable taxes, withholding, and prize winner's compliance with, and agreement to the ELFIT prize affidavit.
